FIFTEEN CENTS

Methodists recollect past as centennial approaches

by JANE POLZIN

Looking ahead to the centennial celebration of the United Methodist Church of Antioch confirms the congregation's rich historic tradition, the solid roots upon which it continues to grow.

Methodism got its start in Antioch with special meetings conducted by Evangelist A.J. Bell in an unoccupied Baptist church.

"The first invitation given for seekers to come to the Mercy Seat was responded to by a Mrs. Wray, an aged woman and Mrs. Addie Williams, then the mother of two small children, one of which was often in her arms at these meetings," the church historical record states.

A long-standing church family grew out of those beginnings. The youngsters Mrs. Williams tended at those meetings were the father and aunt of Betty Lou Williams, who is now an active church member.

By 1879 a Methodist Church of about 40 members was organized and W.F. Atchison was appointed pastor.

The same year a Methodist Sunday school was organized and the first juvenile society, the Band of Hope began in 1883.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service was also started about that time, as well as four afternoon women's circles, two evening women's circles, the Methodist Men's Club, Methodist Youth Fellowship, official board and adult choir.

PROPERTY FOR THE present church building was purchased in 1886. It was constructed under the leadership of the Rev. E.J. Aiken. Cost for the structure was about $5,500.

Two church groups donated the large stained glass windows which cast a spray of light across the sanctuary floor. Memorial windows to Mr. and Mrs. W.H. Ring and Mrs. Carrie Spafford were given as gifts to the church.

Antioch's American Legion Post 748 presented the congregation with its first American flag on Declaration Day, 1927.

Dorothy Runyard Chase, a church member since 1912, recalled her early impressions of the church. There was a large heating register near the pulpit and "we would stand in front of the altar to get warm."

THERE WAS NO carpeting on the floor or kneeling pads at the communion rail, she said. A wall clock that was "very obvious to the congregation" has recently been removed, Mrs. Chase noted.

"The church doors were never locked," she recalled "and the back parking lot for years had a long shed with five or six stalls in it for people who would drive in with their horses and buggies."

Women wore hats and gloves to church. "You just didn't go to church without your gloves," she added.

One-half hour before and immediately prior to each service, the janitor rang the church bell, which was "quite a job," said Mrs. Chase, who is believed to be the longest standing living church member. The bell is no longer tolled.

MRS. CHASE fondly recalled the brightly decorated Christmas tree and activities held in the church. "Christmas eve was a big night for half the town and the church people," she said. Church groups made decorations for the tree and women prepared popcorn and fudge for the children.

During the pastorate of the Rev. C.W. Cleworth, the first parsonage was purchased in 1905. The present pastor's home was acquired in May, 1955 while the Rev. Howard Benson led the church.

The Rev. E. Lester Stanton began work remodeling the parsonage in 1926. "He had a new bride and wanted the parsonage fixed up nice," she said.

SPEAKING OF THE many ministers she has seen come and go, Mrs. Chase said, "I've loved them all as far back as I can remember."

The Wesley Hall educational unit was erected in 1951. It is now used for meetings and special events.

As the church and Sunday school grew, more room was needed. A Christian Education wing containing seven classrooms, a kitchen, rest rooms, pastor's study and the church office was built.

"The women's society was very strong," said Mrs. Fern Watson, who became a church member in 1927 and taught school in Antioch for 32 years.

THE ORGANIZATION raised money by holding bazaars and penny and ice cream socials, she said.

Still strong, the United Methodist Women, now meet in five different circles which gather together once a month.

A Sunday school superintendent for a number of years, Mrs. Watson also sang in the choir and was president of the women's society "two or three times."

"The first Ladies Aid Society meeting was held at my grandmother's home," said Betty Lou Williams, whose grandfather, D.A. Williams, was in on the planning of the present building.

Many of the church's early members were from New York state, she said. Miss Williams recalled her grandmother's stories about Indians coming through what is now the village.

ONE DAY an Indian family knocked on her grandmother's door seeking milk for a sick infant, she said. Although it seems like many years ago, it was not really that long ago, she added.

Like her grandparents, Miss Williams has enjoyed church work over the years. She has taught Sunday school classes for children

Creek report awaited

A Sequoit Creek channelization report is expected in four to five weeks from a firm hired by the Antioch Grade School District.

Dr. Roy Elmore, head of the water department of Chicago's Harza Engineering Co., was hired by the district to study the channelization proposal to ensure there will be no adverse affects to the school or its property, said Donald Skidmore, grade school superintendent.

Channelization has been proposed by the village to help alleviate some of the flooding problems along the creek.

The district filed a request with the Illinois Dept. of Transportation (IDOT) to delay issuing a permit to the village for channelization.

Flooding potential near the end of the creek and flooding problems in the village are both of concern to the Grade School Board, Skidmore said.

The Upper Grade School and an elementary school under construction are both located near the creek, Skidmore wrote in a letter to the director of the IDOT Division of Water Resources.

"We, the school district and the ICDB (Illinois Capitol Development Board) project director...are very concerned about the proposed changes for Sequoit Creek and what these changes may do to the district property and buildings," he wrote.

The ICDB is responsible for public construction.

Spook house to be held by Jaycees

The first 2,000 people to survive the Antioch Jaycee's Haunted House will be rewarded with a coupon from McDonald's Restaurant.

The house will be open from 7-10 p.m. daily and from 8:30-11 p.m. Friday. The house will open Oct. 26 and close after Halloween night. It is located on Lake St. just west of the State Bank of Antioch parking lot.

Cost for the fund-raiser is $1. Proceeds will help support community service projects.

The haunted house has provided the group with "a fun way to raise money," said Jaycee Phil Schaub.

Antioch man arrested for battery

Ross Thompson, of Antioch, was arrested for four counts of battery, one count of aggravated battery and two counts of criminal damage to property during a domestic dispute.

When Antioch police answered the call for domestic trouble at 1104 S. Main St., they observed the subject beating a woman, said Lt. Thomas Fisher.

Thompson, 22, of 322½ Depot St., began fighting with officers and kicked the door of a squad car before the arrest was made.

The incident took place at 3:30 a.m. Oct. 21. A preliminary hearing in Waukegan has been set.

The staff was cited for outstanding photography; in-depth reporting, feature writing, news coverage and advertising.

Three consecutive issues of the 1979-80 Tom Tom were judged by the regional press association. The staff was honored in five, out of a possible nine, categories.

Tom Tom Advisor Mike Gordy said staff members hoped for the Best of Class award for the newspaper, which was entered in the association's largest division.

"We must have been awfully close," he said. "Well, we'll have something to shoot for next year."

Navy Quartermaster 1st Class Richard A. Sparacino, son of John R. and Joyce P. Hipsman of Lake Villa, is currently on a Great Lakes cruise.

Letter to the Editor

SAY, THANKS

Editor:

Our festival has come and gone once more, but memories of your kindness to us will long remain.

All went well on our festival day Aug. 19. We had the same tremendous support from our steadfast friends who braved the chilly and rainy weather to come out and to show us that they cared. As a result, we were able to serve 4,637 dinners.

And we have you to thank for obtaining these blessings for us. We know that it was your very special cooperation and support in publicizing our event in such a fine way that brought these friends — and many new ones — to our grounds. We just cannot do without your assistance.

Our most sincere thanks for everything. We Sisters are much in your debt and will never be able to repay the generosity you have shown us over the years, but we do assure you of our continued prayers each day for many blessing upon you and your work.

With deepest gratitude and our best wishes,

The Benedictine Sisters

Basketball participants sought

Antioch's Dept. of Parks and Recreation is looking for coaches and players for its boys basketball program.

This brand new program is in great need of assistance. There is room for six teams, but only eight boys have signed up at this time. A full schedule has been planned, with coaches, uniforms and a sponsor for each team.

Registrations for any interested players or coaches will be accepted until Saturday, Nov. 3. Parks and Recreation will accept registrations during office hours: Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. and Saturday, 9 a.m.-noon.

Program Coordinator Dee Lang will run the activity.

Pot luck luncheon scheduled

A natural food pot luck dinner will be held at 6:30 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 27, at the home of Mrs. Joan Heitman, Lake Villa.

Mary-Therese Dorfman, member of the yet-unnamed social club, encourages all to come and "see what good food is all about."

For more information, call Cherie at 414-843-2823 or Therese at 414-843-3144.

Antioch Scouts third at annual Camporee

The Warriors Patrol of Antioch's Boy Scouts of America Troop 92 tied for third place in the annual Lakes Area Boy Scout Camporee at Camp Sol R Crown near Trevor.

Under this year's theme "Prospecting for Gold", 15 patrols competed in a series of nine events that demanded teamwork, organization, knowledge and leadership.

"Nuggets" were awarded for skilled performance of such problems as water purification, judging distance with a compass, climbing ropes, reading trail signs, signaling with flags (semaphore), and map making.

Nuggets were also awarded for the patrol flag made by Steve Denny and for a clean campsite. The patrol received its ribbon at a large bonfire on Saturday night. The Scouts who participated in the competition were Ed Stanek, patrol leader; Steve Denny, assistant patrol leader; Paul Deitrich, Phil Hettich, Bob McKee, Mike Stanek, and John Wierschem. Four of these boys had been in Boy Scouts for only four months.

Members of the troop's Senior Patrol who attended and assisted included Phil Aschbacher, Paul J. Hettich, Mike Lief, and guest Geoff Ziemann.

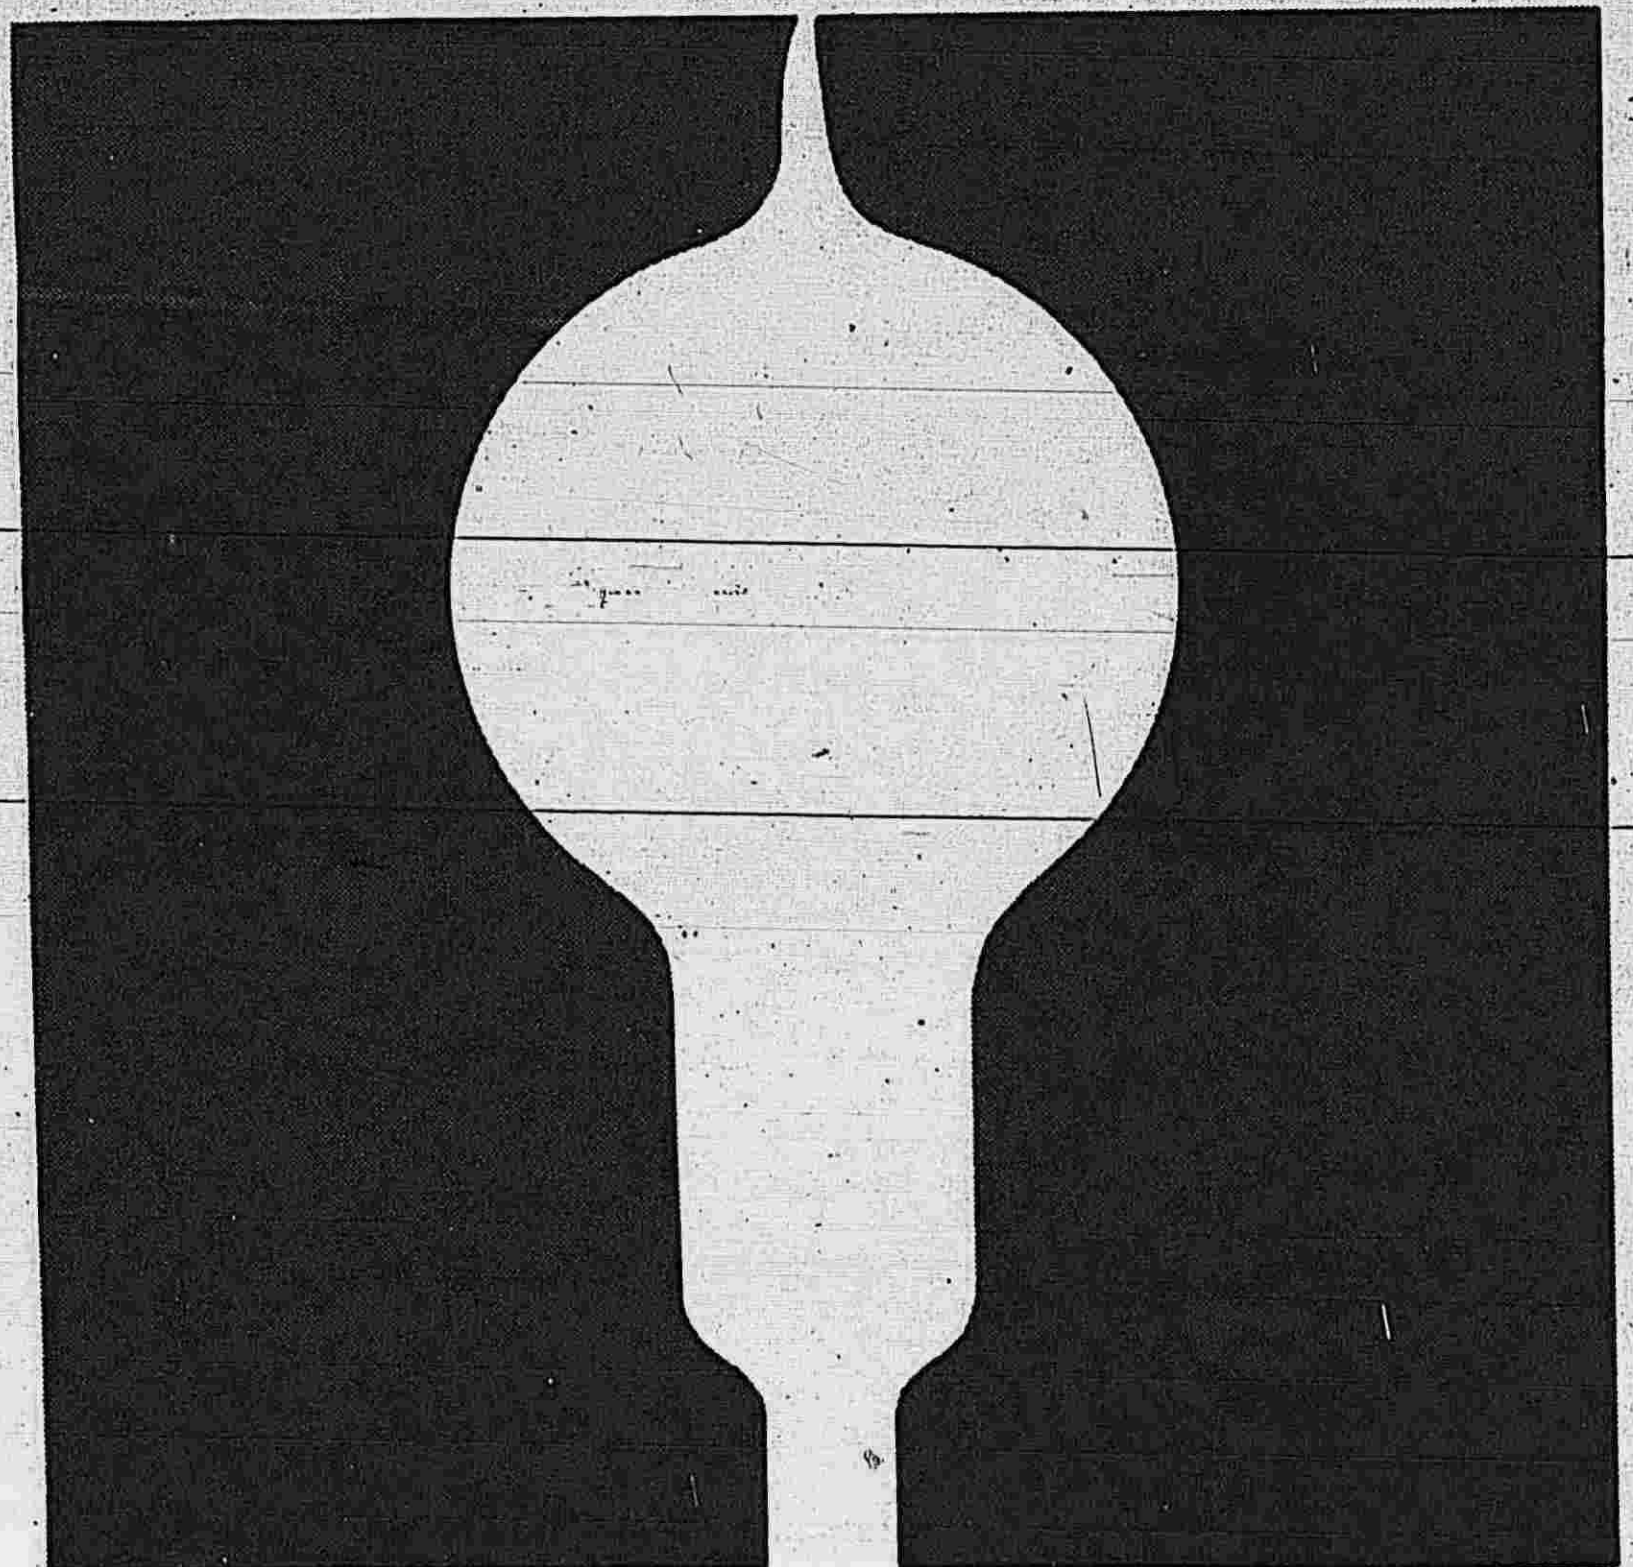

Among the adults who attended and assisted with the camporee were Bernie Dost the Scoutmaster, Dave Gade, Bob McKee, Ken Wierschem, and Paul Hettich.

Troop 92 will be traveling to Hartford, Wis. on Oct. 28-29 to take down tents from a Girl Scout Camp, and to Chicago on Nov. 10 to tour a museum. Scouts and their parents are also planning for their annual Spaghetti Dinner at the Moose Lodge on Sunday, Oct. 21.

Subdivision donations discussed

Members of the Antioch Village Board discussed park and school donation requirements for subdivisions at a committee meeting.

The four trustees present will recommend to the board that $22,000 an acre be set for land market value.

Antioch's subdivision ordinance requires developers to make park and school donations depending on the number of adults and children who will live in the subdivision.

The board is expected to set the $22,000 figure in an effort to create a standard from which it can discuss land donations with developers.

Unlike other nearby communities, Antioch's present subdivision ordinance does not have a dollar amount for the land's market value because of escalating land values, said Plan Commission Chairman Tony Starcevic.

With such a rate the board would have to review the amount every six months, he added.

Presently, park and school donations are done on a negotiating basis. The board is expected to take action on the recommendation at its next meeting.

Women to hear Variations

The Antioch Women's Club held its meeting at Harbor Ridge Country Club Oct. 15. President Louise Santino welcomed guests and new members.

The program Today's China was enjoyed by all. The wonderful slides on China give everyone a true picture of life in China today, a spokesman said.

The next meeting will be Nov. 5 at Harbor Ridge Country Club. The program will be by The Variations, a musical group.

Spooky party is Oct. 31

While the ghosts and goblins are walking the streets of Antioch, the department of parks and recreation will be hosting a Halloween party.

The event will be held from 7 to 9 p.m. Oct. 31 at the Lower Grade School.

A costume contest, popcorn, candy and movies will be featured throughout the evening. Fifty cents per child will be taken at the door.

Conservation club to show projects

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club is pleased to announce a Let's Get Acquainted Night to be held at the Antioch Auction Center, 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Wednesday evening, November 7. There will be no admission charge and free refreshments and snacks will be served.

Featured events for the evening will include a club film showing the many projects and activities it has engaged in over the many years, plus demonstrations from various local clubs which will satisfy a variety of interests.

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club has been in existence since the early fifties and is holding the event in appreciation of the generous support the members and the Antioch community have given over the many years.

Some of the club's activities include the annual ice fishing derby, Kettle Moraine trip for fifth graders, annual easter egg hunt, hunter safety courses and trap shooting.

In addition to its own activities, the club trap shooting facilities and grounds have always been available to other area clubs for fund raising endeavors. It is the club's intention to continue and possibly expand this policy.

The club has recently relocated to the southwest corner of Rte. 173 and 59 and the new grounds should help the club realize its ambition of further expansion to better serve the Antioch area, a spokesman said.

The Let's Get Acquainted Night will prove to be an evening of fun and interest for everyone and the club is looking forward to a large turnout.

A New Look At Life After 50

Studies show that many homeowners over age 50 bought their home 15 to 20 years ago. With increasing inflation, there is a need to review and where necessary, update the insurance coverage on these homes.

According to the U.S. Census Bureau, construction costs rose 123.8% between 1968 and 1978 alone. In fact the rebuilding cost of older homes in many areas has at least doubled. And if they're destroyed by fire or other calamity, unless the insurance protection has kept pace with inflation, many homeowners may have to pay thousands of dollars out of their own pockets.

Thus, a review of homeowner insurance is important. Make sure you shop around, though, because you may find that updating your coverage will cost no more than you're paying—and in some cases, the cost may even be less.

and adults and has been a member of the church board "off and on for a number of years."

Restoration of the original church building is under way in preparation for the congregation's 100th anniversary celebration Nov. 18.

Pews and altar furniture are being restored, new carpeting is being installed and original plaster in the sanctuary is being refurbished.

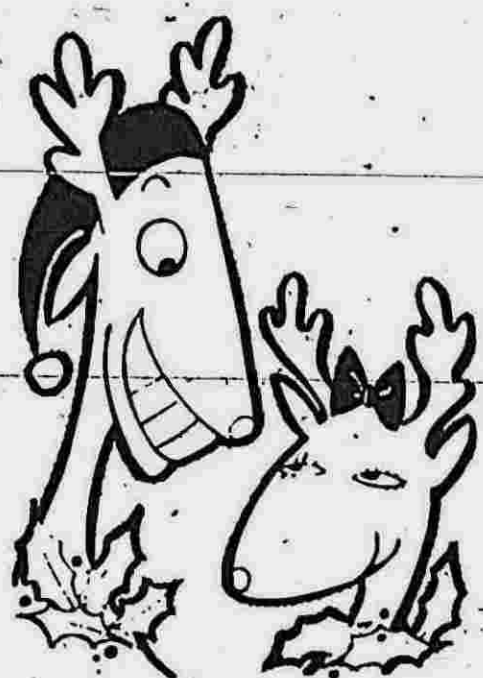

The Rev. Steve Williams has been at United Methodist for seven years and is looking to the future. "As the Antioch area continues to grow, there will likely be the need for the construction of a larger sanctuary using the existing sanctuary as a chapel."

Two hundred and sixty families are represented in the church's membership rolls, which number over 500.

The church now has two major programs emphasizing music and Christian education, the Rev. Williams said, and "is very much involved ecumenically in the community."

Mrs. Betsy Houghton, a lay leader, presents a Moment of Methodism each Sunday during worship, continuing the church's tradition of taking a glimpse at the past while looking to the future.

Construction begins on new bridge bypass

A bypass along side Ackerman Rd. is under construction to accommodate traffic during the construction of a new bridge.

The present bridge, a relocated railroad structure, is too narrow, said Road Commissioner Blaine Ring.

The cost of the bridge is $346,990.95. The township will pay 10 percent of that amount, with the county also paying 10 percent and the federal government paying 80 percent.

"Residents can rest assured they will be able to get in and out of their homes," a spokesman said. "It will be no picnic if it's a bad winter," he added.

Contractor for the prestressed concrete deck girder bridge is Eric Bolander of Libertyville. The current structure is a steel truss bridge.

Behne leads Sequoits to win over Wauconda

Dan Behne led the Sequoits to a 24-6 win over Wauconda by breaking his own school record for kicking 18 points after touchdowns. His record last year was 17.

"He really had an outstanding day for himself," said Sequoit Coach Steve Wapon.

Behne also kicked a 34 yard field goal, caught three passes for a total of 55 yards and had an interception. He also recovered a fumble as he made his best punting performance, punting six times for 44 yards.

DENIS FLASCHNER had a 29 yard run in the third quarter and had 111 yards rushing in 19 carries and two touchdowns.

Mark Pomazak intercepted a pass and ran for five yards to score. He had 19 carries for 78 yards.

"Defense played a fine ballgame," Wapon said. "A large amount of the credit for success in this win should go to Defensive Co-ordinator Ted DeRousse and Defensive Back Coach Rich Brown."

Making interceptions were Pomazak, Behne, John Jackson and Phil Bielawski.

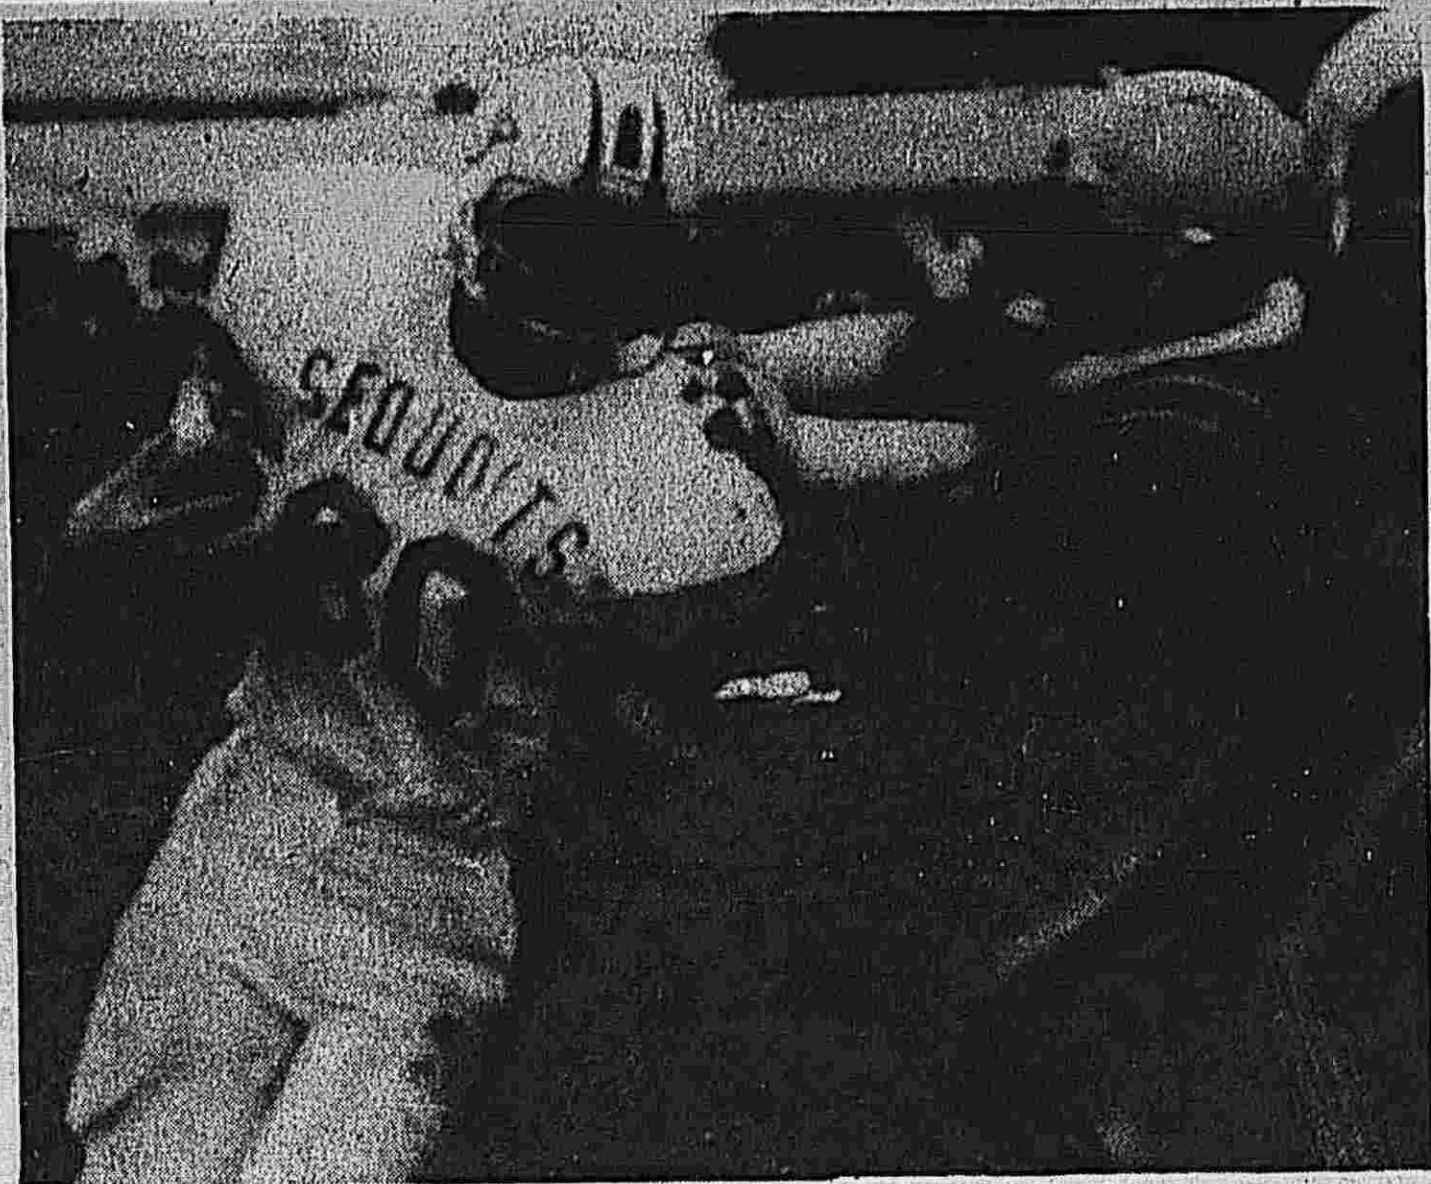

"OFFENSIVELY, INTERIOR line blocking was very good," Wapon reported. During the third quarter, however, the offense was "bogged down," he added.

"Overall, the offense played a good game, but defense did it when they really had to," Wapon said.

The Sequoits are looking to "a big one" this weekend against Round Lake, he added. The Parents' Day game will be played at noon Oct. 27 at home.

"We know Round Lake is big, with a fine running attack," Wapon said. The team is "always well-coached and hard-hitting," he added. "It will be another tough ballgame, without a doubt."

Because the Sequoits are tied for first place with Warren, "we've got to play one ballgame at a time," he said.

WHO'S THERE?—Dennis Flaschner, 30, Antioch High School running back has Wauconda defender on his back during Sequoits 24-7 win Saturday, Oct. 20, at Wauconda. Varsity tennis players tie for conference third

The Antioch Community High School Tennis Team ended its season participating in the Illinois High School Assn. District Tournament at Round Lake.

Singles participants were Marjie Allen and Jenny Behne. Marjie won her first round match against Johnsbury, but lost her second to the No. five seed from Waukegan West. Jenny lost her first round match to the defending district singles champion, Sue Hutchinson from McHenry.

The doubles teams of Amy Lewandowski and Renee Tell and Dawn Flaschner and Diane Appelhans lost first round matches, also, against tough competition.

Behne, Flaschner, Appelhans and third singles Tracey Witt fared better at the conference tournament at Grayslake on Oct. 13-14. All of them took third place in a strong conference. Antioch ended with a 4-3 conference record, tied for third. Overall, the varsity compiled a 6-11 record.

The Junior Varsity team, led by undefeated doubles team of Debbie Drinkwine and Jill Larkin, finished with a 9-3 record.

The team should be strong next year, as only Jenny Behne and Maria Mikula will be lost to graduation. Coaches Elaine Weidner and Julie Pederson look forward to next year's season.

Homestead exemption eligibility guidelines set

Homestead and other exemption qualifications were told by Township Assessor R.G. (Bud) Holtz.

Residents may be able to save $80-100 from their tax bill if they are eligible for the homestead exemption.

One requirement is that the individual is 65 years of age before January 1 of the first filing year. Residents must live in the home for most of the year and can file for one exemption in Illinois.

THE DEED TO the property, an old tax bill and identification of age are required to apply.

A homestead improvement exemption which defers increased assessment for four years can be applied for by residents who own their own home, built an addition or remodeled and have a final assessment during the year they are filing.

An old tax bill and canceled checks or paid receipts for the work done are needed by the assessor to determine eligibility.

Qualifications for a circuit breaker exemption follow.

Application must be made by an Illinois resident who is 65 years of age on or before Jan. 1 of the filing year.

In the case of total disability, the resident must be 16 years of age or older and unable to work due to a mental or physical disability expected to last a year or more.

Another requirement is that the individual earns under $10,000 a year.

Information needed for application is the income total and tax or rent amount for the year.

A limited homestead exemption can be applied for by year-round residents who received a raise in assessments for their 1978 taxes, given up to $1,500 in equalized value, according to a notice from the assessor's office.

"If $1,500 was not used up for 1978, the remainder is due to the taxpayer on the next raise in assessment."

the note said.

If eligible, residents will receive an $80-100 exemption depending on the tax levy.

Additional information can be received by visiting the Antioch Township assessor's office at 99 Rte. 173 or calling 395-1545.

McKenzie chosen principal

Ruth McKenzie, fifth grade instructor at the Grass Lake School for the past nine years, has been appointed elementary principal in Holton, Michigan. She will complete her teaching duties at Grass Lake on Friday, October 26.

Township tells senior services

Qualifications for senior citizen taxi half-fare discounts and the emergency housing repair program were announced by the Antioch Township Supervisor Jim Fields.

To be eligible for the one-half taxi fare discount, individuals must be at least 60 years of age and reside in the township.

Identification of age as well as address are needed to apply.

Eligibility requirements for the Senior Citizen Emergency Housing Repair Program are home ownership with the head of the household age 62 or older or disabled or handicapped and having a gross income of $7,550 or less for an individual or $8,650 or less for two or more.

Critical repair items for which application can be made, for example, are furnace, roof, water or sewer supply systems or insulation in need of repair or replacement.

The maximum grant is for $1,500.

The township supervisor will need the following information for application: verification of home ownership by deed or other means and Lake County Building Dept. verification of emergency status. A report will then be forwarded to the county.

More information can be received by visiting the Antioch Township Supervisor's office at 99 Rte. 173 or calling 395-3378.

Community evening was winner

Despite having to compete with the final game of the World Series, Antioch's Community Awareness and Voter's Night was a success.

The evening "went real well," said Bill Georgeson, a member of the Antioch Township Republican Club which sponsored the event.

There were about 30 representatives from non-profit organizations present as well as village and township officials.

The purpose of the evening was to acquaint residents with the many organizations and people who serve the community.

"We wished for a little more turn out," Georgeson said. "Next year we hope for more."

by BETH RIECK

The regular meeting of the Richmond Pioneer Club was called to order at noon Oct. 16.

The meeting was held at the Hastings Memorial (Masonic) Hall on Broadway St., Richmond. Due to vacationing President Verona Nies, Dorothy Ackland, vice president, presided. There were 50 members present.

Chaplain Violet Wild gave the prayer before everyone enjoyed sandwiches, cake and pie refreshments.

A report on the color tour boat trip on Lake Geneva was given by the program director, Dorothy Ackland. There were 41 present and the tour guide gave an excellent and interesting description and history of Lake Geneva and homes. Everyone enjoyed the sunny beautiful afternoon.

Women needed for volleyball

There is still time to join Antioch Parks and Recreation's women's volleyball program.

A fun time was enjoyed by all who attended the event last Tuesday evening, said Director Glenda Tomaschik.

The team plays from 7-9 p.m. Tuesday evenings at the Upper Grade School.

The Harvest Dinner will be held at Andre's Restaurant in Richmond at 1 p.m. Tuesday, Nov. 6. Anyone who has not signed up and wishes to go may contact Al Tomasek, 815-678-7071 or Walter Pretzman, 815-678-3631. This will be considered a regular meeting.

A report was given that Charles Frey is now at home and Verona Nies, who is on vacation, is having discomfort in her broken arm due to the cold and damp weather in Vermont.

The committee reported on its selection of a meeting place for the club for the balance of 1980. It was revealed the Hasting Memorial Temple was selected. It was put up for vote and passed unanimously.

There is a shopping tour scheduled Nov. 28. More details will be given later.

The refreshment committee for the November 20 meeting is Frank and Dorothy Ackland, Al and Mary Tomasek, George and Verona Nies and Edith Buchert.

After the meeting, a social time was held.

Heavies dive and sweep to win over Round Lake

The Antioch Viking Heavyweight team proved to themselves and their fans that they do not give up when the going gets rough.

Round Lake drew first blood with a good drive and scored with 5:38 left in the first quarter.

In second quarter action the Vikings took it to Round Lake and scored on a run by Andy Lehn, the point after failed, with a score of 7-6.

Round Lake then came back up field passing and running to score again, point after good, with a half-time score Antioch 6 Round Lake 14.

In the second half, Antioch scored first with a touchdown run by Eddy Silva at 14-12. Both teams were up and down the field. Andy Lehn took a pass from Bob Walden and ran for a touchdown, with the point after good.

Not to be denied, Round Lake came back for yet another touchdown, score Round Lake 20 Antioch 19. The Vikings now had a long way to go and not much time.

On sweeps and dives the Vikings came back with the final touchdown of the game by Eddy Silva on a sweep to cross the goal line with three seconds left to play.

Final score was Antioch, 25 Round Lake, 20 and with that victory the Heavyweight team is still in contention for a division title.

Field hockey team beats New Trier

During the week of Oct. 15-22 the Antioch Varsity Field Hockey teams played three games, all of which went into overtime.

The first one, was against Homewood-Flossmoor and ended in a 0-0 tie in regulation play. After a 10 minute overtime, the score was still 0-0, but Homewood won it with three goals in the second overtime.

It was a disheartening loss for Antioch because at least three-quarters of the game was played on the Homewood end of the field. Antioch had at least 10 shots on goal during regulation and overtime, but were unable to score.

Wednesday the Sequoits triumphed, beating a good New Trier West squad 5-3 in overtime. New Trier, a perennial field hockey power, scored during the first 30 seconds of the game to take a 1-0 lead. The game remained 1-0 until midway in the second half when Beth Mueller scored, assisted by Renee Petykowski, to tie the game.

After the first overtime the score still remained tied, but Antioch outscored New Trier 4-2 in the second overtime to win the game. The goals scored during overtime play were made by Kathy Odlsen, Tracy Manuel, Melaine Mohar and Laura Ogden.

Thursday Antioch traveled to Woodstock where Antioch lost 3-1 in overtime. Antioch had numerous chances to score in regulation time and had one goal disallowed, but failed to score. The lone goal in overtime was scored by Laura Ogden.

Seahawks win over Eagles

The game started with the Seahawks taking possession of the ball on the Eagles 40 yard line.

Pat Bruks carried the ball twice for touchdowns and once for the extra point. Ken Bergman carried for the second extra point. Rich Turco recovered a fumble in the fourth quarter to give the ball back to the Seahawks.

The coaches credited the offensive line of David Lear, Jason Johnson, Turco, Steve Pappadakis, Gerry Stollenwerk and Mike Galdine for fine offensive blocking. Final score Seahawks, 14, Eagles, 0.

The Seahawks and their coaches would like to thank their cheerleaders Renee Eves, Melissa Garland, Julie Mower, Kim Portalski and Courtney Suttan.

Bucks total Falcons

Buccaneers beat the Falcons with a rousing score of 28-0.

An outstanding game was played by both offense and defense. Coaches credit Jack Davis, Chuck Clark, Ryan Rau, Danny Adams and the entire Buccaneers team with a well played game.

Raiders whip Warriors

The Raiders bounced back from last week's defeat to win 20-2 over the Warriors.

The defense played its usual fine game making a good goal-line stand stopping the Warriors four times inside the 10.

The Raider scoring was done by Stan Kuligowski on a run, Mike Fields on a pass and Kelly Lowry on a fine run on the last play of the game. Paul Papenfuss made a tackle in the end zone for a Raider safety.

Doug Graf and Pat Mercer were given credit for a sack and two points for the safety by the Warriors. Jeff Graf caught many good passes and Larry Rogers ran for good yardage.

CLASS CANCELED

The Children's Cooking Class sponsored by the Antioch Dept. of Parks and Recreation has been canceled due to lack of response.

LOOKS LIKE HE'S DOWN — Viking football player looks like he's in tough spot during Lightweight-Round Lake game. Parents' Day game added to already enthusiastic team in 25-6 win for Antioch.

Lightweights are winners at Parents Day game

Because of the fact that it was Parents Day or maybe it was just a fired-up team, the Antioch Viking Lightweights played a super game against Round Lake, came away a winner and still tied for first place in its division.

Emotions were riding high as the team members and cheerleaders, one at a time, presented their parents with a flower to express appreciation for all that they do.

With 20 seconds left in the first quarter, Gene Elrod ran 43 yards for the touchdown. The point after failed. After receiving a 15 yard pass from Ed Antkowiak, Gene Elrod ran 64 yards for his second touchdown of the game. The point after failed.

Chain fishery slightly better

An end-of-the-summer, five-day fish survey of the Fox River-Chain-O'Lakes area has yielded moderately encouraging results, Illinois Dept. of Conservation fishery biologists report.

Similar to a lengthy survey of the Chain conducted in 1973, this summer's efforts involved five two-man crews working 12 lakes in the 6,500-acre Chain from August 27 through August 30, said Dept. of Conservation Regional Fishery Supervisor Gary Erickson. Sample fish were taken both with nets and with the use of electroshocking equipment designed to stun the fish momentarily and allow for their removal from the water.

Some 6,100 fish were caught in 26 hours of electroshocking as compared to 4,600 caught during the same time period in 1973. The difference may well be accounted for by differing weather and water conditions at the time of the two surveys, Erickson noted.

"We did better this time around, but in '73 we took fish around the Fourth of July. It was a very dry summer. This time there were lower air temperatures and lots of rain," he said. The rain also may have been responsible for flushing the Fox-Chain and eliminating at least some of its turbidity," Erickson said.

Somewhat encouraging is the fact that the carp population seems somewhat less dominant this time around, composing about 14.2 percent of the catch as opposed to 16.7 percent in 1973. Channel catfish, another bottom feeder, also showed some relative decline, accounting for only 6.5 percent of the catch as compared to 8.7 percent in 1973. A dramatic increase was registered for white and yellow bass (30.9 percent from 6.4 percent) but crappie, bluegills and yellow perch were all slightly down.

Walleye frye that were obtained from the federal government and planted over the past two years seem to have survived fairly successfully, Erickson said. Petite Lake, in particular, showed a great improvement, yielding 12 walleye this year compared to none in 1973. Even more encouraging is the fact that quite a few young of the year walleye were found, indicating reproduction of this prized predator.

More significant than the differences in numbers, Erickson said, were condition factors, which means how well fed fish appeared to be. "Condition factors seem to be improved," he said. "They're more filled out... everything is in average to good condition this year."

The reason for this slight improvement in the fishery of the Chain is hinged to water quality, Erickson believes. Quite possibly, improvements in sewage treatment and farming practices in Wisconsin where the Fox River originates have at least temporarily halted the carp pond, he said.

Recently my car wouldn't start and I had to call a service man to come and start it. Would my Automobile policy cover this extra expense?

This extra expense will be covered if your Automobile policy contains "towing and labor" coverage, part of the physical damage coverage in an Automobile policy. This coverage will pay for the towing of the vehicle to a repair station and labor costs necessitated by the disablement of the owned auto or of any non-owned auto (driven by the policyholder) provided the labor is performed at the place of disablement. An example of labor performed might include service charges for jumping a battery or changing a flat tire. However, the repair of the tire would not be covered... only the labor of changing it. With "towing and labor" coverage, there is usually a maximum liability paid for each occurrence.
